As it will be necessary, at an early date, to appoint a Superintendent to the Central Jail now being erected at Rajahmundry, and a part of which is now ready for the reception of prisoners, and as it is probable that the Superintendent of the Central Jail will be placed in charge of the District Jail as well, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that it be notified to Assistant Surgeon Croudace that his appointment as Superintendent of the District Jail is to be considered only a temporary appointment. Under the circumstances, the full salary of Rupees 50 per mensem will be passed to Assistant Surgeon Croudace, without any deduction on account of his not having passed the examination prescribed in the Proceedings of Government of the 8th ultimo. For the same reason, the full salary of Rupees 100 per mensem will be passed to Assistant Surgeons Roberts and Davis, whose appointments as Superintendents of the Jails at Salem and Coimbatore are only temporary.
