"Appt. as Insp. Genl.
"of Police during the "absence of Mr. Hearn
"of Mr. W. S. Wilson.

Extra

Thursday

October 11 October 1865

My dear Hadleston, I arrived here yesterday and saw Wentworth this morning. He tells me that Robinson is quite willing to spare Mease, and that there will not be any difficulty about granting my leave.

Mease consents to act upon his two pay as Dr. Dr. of $1000, but it is possible there may be some hitch about the matter in the Pay Department, although Wentworth did not seem to think there would be.

Robins will release me on the 19th, and as I must be back in Madison by the 23rd if I do not get my leave I am anxious to know the result, and shall be much obliged if you keep me advised upon the subject. - It is more than a month since I saw Mr. Robinson and permitted to put himself in communication with the authorities on the subject, but I only heard this morning that there was no objection to the proposed arrangement. It otherwise should have sent me very applications long ago, and have avoided this hurry to the fact - as it is I could not help it -

Ever truly
yours

J. M. W. R.

Johnson is anxious that Kearney should continue on, as he has fixed upon him for the place in event of the "Amalgamation"

My dear Mr. Rudolph

Capt Kearney had I think better be permitted to continue to act during Cal. It's dear.

Is there not some arrangement at Allen-that had better be communicated to this office in an order of fact?
