FORT SAINT GEORGE, }

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

From the Inspector General of Madras Police, Madras, 2nd January 1865, No. 3; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

With reference to your Memorandum, dated 13th ultimo, Captain Carr was appointed to the Police Department on 1st May 1860, on probation. He was confirmed in the Police Service by Judicial Notification, 30th August 1861; when he gave up his substantive appointment as Adjutant of his Regiment, on the condition of confirmation in the Police.

2. Captain Carr has served throughout in my Office at Madras; first as my Personal Assistant; then as Assistant Inspector General.

3. Captain Carr passed the highest Standard, as Interpreter, in Telugoo, on 28th May 1860. No further examination in the Vernaculars of the Presidency was therefore necessary.

4. Captain Carr has not passed the Criminal Law Test. He has not been employed as a District Police Officer; and this study has not, therefore been practically required of him. Further the Criminal Law Test was not actually laid down till some months after his confirmation, viz., June 1862; when the charges in the Criminal Law of the country had been so fully settled as to admit of the Test very specifically laid down.

5. I therefore trust that Captain Carr's confirmation in the Police service may not be disturbed.

ORDER, No. 276, 21st January 1865.

Ordered that the foregoing letter from the Inspector General of Madras Police be communicated to the Government of India.
