No. 57. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 24th November 1865, No. 539.

As the amount of permanent advances taken up by Officers in charge of Jails is, under the new system of post audit, considered unnecessarily large, and I see no reason now why in any case it should exceed one month's cost of contingencies, I have the honor, therefore, to submit, herewith, a Statement drawn up on that principle, for sanction.

G. O., 13th April 1864, No. 515.

Statement showing the sums calculated to meet contingencies of the several Jails.
