Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 7th December 1865.

No. 61. Read the following letter from the Acting Magistrate of the Kistna District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Masulipatam, 22nd November 1865, No. 260.

With reference to the Order of Government, dated 10th January last, No. 40, I have the honor to transmit, herewith, copy of a letter from the Head Assistant Magistrate, dated 18th instant, No. 93, stating that the wife of Gudi Ellamanda, a lunatic, who was transferred to the Lunatic Asylum at Vizagapatam, appeared before him, and expressed her willingness to receive and take care of the lunatic, and recommending that the lunatic may be delivered to her.

2. I, therefore, request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government regarding the release of the Lunatic in question, under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

From the Head Assistant Magistrate of the Kistna District, to the Acting Magistrate of the Kistna District at Masulipatam; dated Guntoor, 18th November 1865, No. 93.

I have the honor to inform you that Gudi Subbalakshmi, wife of Gudi Ellamanda, a lunatic, disposed of under Government Order of 10th January 1865, No. 40, on my Report No. 44, dated 12th December 1864 to the District Magistrate, has this day appeared before me, and declared herself able and willing to take care of her lunatic husband, should he be handed over to her. The lunatic was sent to the Vizagapatam Asylum, because considered dangerous, and because his relatives would not then be responsible for his safe keeping.

2. Should the Government not object, I see no objection to the lunatic's being, with due consideration to his present condition and conduct while under confinement, handed over to the care of his wife, who lives with her brothers in Amaravaty in Krosur. They, she says, are quite willing to take their share in keeping the husband out of harm's way.

No. 62. ORDER THEREON, 7th December 1865, No. 1750.

The Governor in Council is not prepared to sanction the release of the prisoner referred to, who, it is observed, was placed in confinement as a dangerous lunatic.
