1. With reference to paragraph 2 of G. O. No. 3,039 of the 13th of October, I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that out of the sum of Rupees 2,295-13-1 that remained in the hands of the Collector of South Arcot on the 30th of April 1865, Rupees 868-13-0 were refunded by him to the Executive Engineer, No. I. Range, and the remainder (Rupees 1,427-0-1) was the amount required by the Collector for completing the Subsidiary Jails, as reported in my letter No. 1,175 of the 15th of August, recorded in G. O. No. 2,864 of the 27th September.

2. Rupees 682-11-10 out of the above sum had been expended by the Collector up to June 1865. I do not know whether any further outlay has since been incurred.

As no specific orders were passed by Government on my letter referred to in paragraph 1, I request I may be informed whether I am to ask the Collector to remit the balance of Rupees 1,427-0-1 into the Treasury and furnish me with a receipt for the same, or whether funds will be transferred from another Division.
