No. 153. Read the following letter from the Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Masulipatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Masulipatam, 28th November 1865, No. 306.

Agreeably to the provisions of Clause 7, Section 16, Regulation III of 1802, I beg to submit an Inventory of the property of the late Messrs. W. Scott and D'Prazer, both East Indian inhabitants of Masulipatam, who died intestate on the night of the 1st November 1864. The former was Manager of the 2nd Division, Superintending Engineer's office, and the latter a pensioned Head Writer of the late Zillah Court.

2. The necessary advertisements were published, calling for any person entitled to receive charge of the effects to attend and lay claim, but no person has come forward.

3. Several creditors have put in their claims to the respective estates, the particulars of which are embodied in the inventory, whereby the liability appears to exceed the assets. I request the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, for the disposal of the intestate property and the claims put forward.
