No. 163. From the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 8th December 1865, No. 611.

At the instance of the Superintendent of the Trichinopoly Jail, I have the honor to request that tents may be available at that station in case cholera, which has broken out, and I believe always does break out at that station in the cold weather, should extend to the Jail.

2. Captain Bloomfield informs me that no tents are available should there be a necessity for them.

3. It is not for this Jail alone that I think tents should be available at Trichinopoly, a sudden demand from Madura, Tanjore, or Tranquebar may arise on those Jails being visited by an epidemic.

Referred through the Military Department to the Quarter Master General for report, as to whether tents can be sent to Trichinopoly, and if so, what number.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

MEMORANDUM.

Under orders from the Government of India, in Proceedings of Government, No. 4363, dated 25th November last, tents are not to be issued to Jails in case of epidemics breaking out. There are tents for Native troops at Trichinopoly, but they are subject to be required by the troops. The 25th N. I. was on the point of being placed in camp only a few days ago.

(Signed) R. HAMILTON, Colonel,
Deputy Secretary to Government.

No. 165. ORDER THEREON, 19th December 1865, No. 1817.

The Governor in Council directs that a copy of the Quarter Master General's docket, under date the 12th instant, be forwarded to the Inspector General of Jails, whose attention will be called to the Proceedings of Government, under date the 22nd June and 25th November last, Nos. 883 and 4563. In the first of these Proceedings it has been laid down that in the case of an outbreak of epidemic disease in a Jail the convicts should be moved into huts, which in most localities can be constructed easily and quickly. Common huts built with mud walls and thatched with Bamboo or Palmyra leaves will suffice. If a necessity should arise Mr. Rohde will
