Mr. G. R. information in the matter, and request you will be good enough to inform me how I am to act.

2. I have not suspended Mr. Clarke, as required by paragraph 2 of G. O., dated 28th October 1859, No. 2539, because I consider that his Covenant would protect him from the forfeiture of salary which such suspension is intended to entail.

From B. BROOKS, Esq., Acting Chief Clerk, to Lieutenant Colonel J. CARPENDALE, R. E., Mint Master; dated Madras, 10th February 1865,

As you have written two letters to me upon the subject of Mr. G. R. Clarke's Insolvency, and to spare you further trouble, in reply, I beg to state that it is not the practice of my office to correspond on cases filed in ^{*}.

No. 11. To the Honorable Sir C. H. SCOTLAND, Knight, Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, dated Fort Saint George, 2nd March 1865, No. 341,

With reference to the annexed copy of a letter from the Mint Master, under date the 15th instant, I am directed by His Excellency the Governor in Council to request that, if you see no objection, you will instruct the Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Court to furnish the Mint Master, and other Heads of offices who may have occasion to apply to him, with the Schedules filed by public servants in their offices, who have obtained the benefit of the Insolvent Act, and the order of the Judge in each case. Under the rules in force, Heads of offices are required to submit, for the consideration of Government, the case of every public servant under them who may have taken the benefit of the Insolvent Act, in order that it may be determined whether the Insolvent should be permitted to remain in the Public Service. The information can only be obtained by reference to the Schedule and order of the Judge, which will not be detained longer than is absolutely necessary.

Chief Secretary.
