Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th March 1865.

No. 38. Read the following letter from Major R. M. MACDONALD, Registrar General of Assurances, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 30th January 1865, No 42.

I have the honor to report that the District Registrar of Ganjam has appointed Temeti Kurmanatha Row to act as Deputy Registrar of Munsurcottah, vice G. Apparow, resigned, and to request that the appointment may be gazetted.

2. This post is one of those which is held by a non-official Deputy Registrar, and I beg to be informed whether, in cases of such appointments becoming permanently vacant, the choice of a new incumbent should be left to the Collector, or to the District Registrar.

No. 39. ORDER THEREON, 8th March 1865, No. 368.

Nominations to permanent vacancies in the office of Deputy Registrar should be made by the District Registrar, and submitted, through the Registrar General, to Government.

2. Under Section 10 of the Act (XVI of 1864), the District Registrar is empowered to make temporary arrangements for the charge of the office of Deputy Registrar, on a vacancy occurring; but the permanent appointment has to be made by Government.

(True Extract)

Chief Secretary.

To the Registrar General of Assurances.

Exd. J. H. Burns.

General have not sent up the correspondence; we do not therefore know whether the appointment made by the District Registrar, is of the temporary nature or, by Section X, he has power to make, or not. Then he has taken on himself to say
 he can make a permanent appointment.
 If only a provisional appointment has been made, the authority to make it clearly rests, I think, in the District Registrar.
 It would of course rest with the Government under Section VIII to confer or disallow it, should they determine on putting in their own nominee.
 Reading the act as a whole, I don't think it intends that matters of this kind should be done through the Registrar General.
