Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department
3th March 1865.

No. 44. Read the following letter from T. I. P. HARRIS, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Trichinopoly, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Trichinopoly, 28th February 1865, No. 54.

I have the honor to request you will be good enough to submit the following for the consideration of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

2. Being desirous of ascertaining the date on which my 35 years' service in India expires, I addressed a demi-official letter to the Civil Paymaster on the subject, and beg to enclose copy of a reply from the Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster in charge.

3. It will be seen therefrom that the time is completed, by the above Officer, from the day I was appointed a Covenantor in the Establishment, viz., the 22nd April 1831, and that, in his opinion, I have completed the said 35 years' service on the 21st April 1866.

4. In conformity with Chapter 2, paragraph 201, of the Civil Auditor's Manual, my time of service counts from the date of my arrival in the country the 5th November 1831, and on the 5th November 1866, 35 years will have expired.

5. On the other hand, a reference to the last published Civil List shows that my actual residence on Service amounts only to 30 years, up to the 31st December last, and that 35 years service will not be completed till the 9th December 1869.

6. I would, therefore, request Government will be pleased to decide the exact date when the period in question actually ends.

From W. DONALD, Esq., Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster in charge, to T. I. P. HARRIS, Esq., Civil and Session Judge, Trichinopoly, dated Fort Saint George, 20th February 1865, No. 235.

Statement Department.

I have the honor, with reference, to your demi-official letter, dated the 18th instant, to state that you will complete 35 years' service upon 21st April 1866. "Service" is reckoned from date of Covenant or appointment, whichever is the earlier, and not from date of arrival. "Residence on Service" and "Service" are quite distinct; the first only is shown in the Civil List.

(True Copy).
