Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department
8th March 1865.

No. 46. Read the following letter from G. A. HARRIS, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Coimbatore, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Coimbatore, 27th February 1865, No. 4.

I have the honor to request I may be favored with the ruling of the Government upon the following point, viz., whether or not I am entitled to retain my present appointment, five years from date of appointment, i. e., October 1863. I am informed (demi-officially) by the Civil Paymaster that such is the case, under paragraph 199 (Section XXIX) Covenanted Service Rules ; because, in September 1863, I was appointed to the new office of Civil and Session Judge, Ootacamund, and was subsequently permitted to exchange to my present appointment.

No. 47. ORDER THEREON, 8th March 1865, No. 373.

The Governor in Council is clearly of opinion that Mr. G. A. Harris will not be entitled to retain his appointment after the 25th July 1866, on which date he will have completed 35 years' service ; the period of service in such cases being taken to commence from the date of arrival in India, as laid down in the Despatch of the late Court of Directors, under date the 19th December 1855, re-published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 28th March 1856.

2. The transfer of Mr. Harris in 1863 from the Civil and Session Court at Chittoor, first to the Court at Ootacamund, and subsequently to that at Coimbatore, both which transfers were made in accordance with his wish, forms no ground for extending, in his case, the period to which the retention of office by Covenanted Civil Servants is limited.
