President of Municipal Commission.

No. 94. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1865, No. 404.

The Joint Magistrate of Bellary forwards, through the Magistrate, the revised Rules for the Municipal Commission of Anantapur. The Commission consider that three is too small a quorum for an ordinary Meeting, and seven too small for a General Meeting, and desire to substitute five and nine respectively. The Government are of opinion that these numbers are too high, but are willing to allow them to be tried. The number three has been altered to five wherever an ordinary Meeting is mentioned, and similarly in the case of a General Meeting, seven to nine.

The restriction of the power of an ordinary Meeting to sanctioning an expenditure not exceeding Rupees 25 is approved. The new Rules X and XI, giving power to the President to suspend any expenditure, until the sense of a General Meeting can be taken, are also, with slight modification, approved. The sanctioned rules are given in the margin of the proposed rules.

3. Rules (revised) XIV and XV, have been slightly modified, but the proposed alteration is approved. The rules requiring security of the Goomastah and providing for the custody of the Cash-chest are also passed.

4. The Commissioners have misunderstood the intention of the Rules (revised) XXVIII and XXX. The provision that the Secretary should sign and initial the receipt and counterfoil was made in order to secure the entry of the proper sum in the receipt book;—it was intended that the receipt book should be signed throughout by the Secretary and delivered to the Goomastah, who would thus be precluded from obtaining more than the amount entered in the receipt, while the initialled counterfoil would show the sum due on the receipt removed, and for which the Goomastah would account to the Secretary. The word "Goomastah" has, therefore, been removed and the word "Secretary" replaced in the rules in question. This explanation will, it is presumed, satisfy the Commissioners as to the course which the Government consider should be followed.

The restrictions on the power of an ordinary Meeting to sanctioning an expenditure not exceeding Rs. 50 is approved.

Rules (revised) IX and XI.

Giving power to the President to suspend any expenditure in the case of a general Meeting can be taken care of, with slight modification, approved. The sanctioned rules are given in the margin of the proposed Rules.

Rules (revised) XII and XV are modified, but the provisions are approved.

The rules requiring security of the Ginnasta and providing for the custody of the cash chest are also passed.

The Commissioners have misunderstood the intention of the Rules (revised) XXVIII and XXX.

The provision that the Secretary should sign and initial the receipt and counterfoil was made in order to ensure the entry of the proper sum in the receipt book—it was intended that the receipt book book should be sent through out by the Secretary and delivered to the Ginnasta who ^{would} be precluded from obtaining more than the amount entered in the receipt while the initialled counterfoil ^{would} show the sum due on receipt removed and for which the Ginnasta ^{would} account to the Secretary.

The word Ginnasta has therefore been removed and the word Secretary replaced. The rules in question. This explanation will, it is presumed, satisfy the Commissioners as to the Government consideration should be followed.

5 The Commissioners have made no provision for the recovery of arrears as directed in para 9 of the Government Order of 17/6 of 1901. December last. This omission has been rectified by the insertion of a rule between Rules (revised) XXVIII and XXVIII and subsequent rules have been re-numbered.
