Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
15th March 1865.

No. 125. Read the following letter from F. C. CARR, Esq., Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Cuddalore, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cuddalore, 6th March 1865, No. 20.

The officer in charge of the Civil Paymaster's Department has refused to pay my salary as Judge of the Court of Small Causes, except from the 11th of February, whereas, by the Fort Saint George Gazette,* His Excellency the Governor in Council was pleased to make the appointment to take effect from the 1st February.

* 10th January 1865.

† 7th February 1865.

2. It is true that by the Gazette† the retirement of Mr. Story is postponed to the date on which he may make over charge of the Civil and Session Court to Mr. C. R. Pelly, who it appears‡ assumed charge on the 11th February.

‡ Gazette, 14th February 1865.

3. There is, however, no order by which my appointment from the 1st is cancelled, for it was made unconditionally, and was not made dependent on Mr. Story's retirement. It is clear, from the Gazette of the 7th February, that Mr. Pelly's appointment as Judge of Nellore was postponed to the date on which he chose to take charge, but no alteration was made as regards my appointment.

4. I, therefore, request that the officer in charge of the Civil Pay Office may be directed to pay the appointment from the date laid down by His Excellency.

No. 126. ORDER THEREON, 15th March 1865, No. 421.

Mr. F. C. Carr's appointment to be Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Cuddalore, notified under date the 10th January last, is to take effect from the 11th ultimo, the date on which Mr. Story's retirement from the Service took effect.
