Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd March 1865.

No. 167. Read the following letter from W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 17th March 1865, No. 583.

General Department.

With reference to Despatch, No. 4, Public, of the 2nd February 1865, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, I venture again to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, a letter from Mr. A. J. Stuart, Acting Assistant Superintendent of Police, North Arcot, praying he may be allowed deputation allowance at 50 per cent. on the salary of his Acting Police appointment, in addition to his pay as Assistant Collector.

2. I have the more confidence in supporting Mr. Stuart's application, as he is turning out a most useful and energetic officer.

From A. J. STUART, Esq., Assistant Superintendent of Police, North Arcot District, to W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police ; dated Vellore, 14th March 1865, No. 22.

With reference to the Order of Government, No. 216, contained in Proceedings Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th February 1865, I have the honor to request you to be so good as to submit once more the subject of my deputation allowance to Government on the following grounds.

2. In their order above referred to, Government declined to authorize my deputation allowance, solely on the ground that I had not served in India for the period of three years, which was necessary to entitle me to a salary of more than 5000 Rupees a year.

3. This restriction has been removed by a Despatch from Secretary of State, dated 2nd February 1865, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of March 10th, 1865.

4. I therefore beg that, under the altered circumstances of the case, you will kindly forward this application for a revision by the Government of this order in my case.

5. Enclosed is the order of Government quoted.

No. 168. ORDER THEREON, 22nd March 1865, No. 449.

The Civil Paymaster will pass deputation allowance to Mr. A. J. Stuart, in conformity with the rules applicable to his case.
