Read the following papers:—

No. 190. From W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kotagherry, 17th January 1865, No. 100.

General Department.

In forwarding the accompanying Extract from letter, No. 407, dated 15th October 1864, from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, I have the honor to request the sanction of Government for the refund of fees paid by subordinate Police Officers who have been examined under the operation of Government Order, 12th July 1862, No. 1104.

Extract from Letter No. 407, dated 15th October 1864, from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations.

5. The Commissioner has thought it advisable not to publish the names of passed Inspectors with the other successful Special Test Candidates, for the following reasons;—

6. The Uncovenanted Civil Service Rules have been declared* inapplicable to the Mofussil Police, but, for the convenience of the Inspector General, the examination in the Criminal Procedure and Penal Code, &c., which he wishes his Inspectors to pass, is undertaken† by the Commissioner.

* G. O., 20th April 1859, No. 621.

† G. O., 12th July 1862, No. 1104, J. D.

7. There are certain rules to which ordinary candidates are required to conform, and a non-compliance with these excludes them from participating in the privileges sought to be obtained by passing these examinations. For instance, a fee is required from every candidate, and a certificate of vaccination must also be produced. Candidates not employed in the public Service on, or before, 1st January 1859, are not admitted to the Special Test Examination, until they have passed the General Test. In the cases also of persons so situated, the examination is conducted through the medium of the English language only; the privilege of passing in the Vernacular being restricted to those who were in public employment on that date, and who have been so employed consecutively up to date of examination.

8. These rules have not been enforced in the case of Inspectors of Police, who have in every respect been treated exceptionally. It

To do. do. 18th December 1863, No. 321, paragraph 4.

Magisterial part of the Tahsildars' test does not make them eligible to hold other appointments in the regular line of the service.

9. To avoid, therefore, the confusion which might have arisen from the publication of passed Inspectors' names with other Special Test Candidates, and to prevent any thing like a misapprehension on the part of those who look to the special test lists as guides to the selection of employes, or to the determination of their rank, status, or eligibility to draw pay, Mr. Pelly has resolved to leave it to you to notify to those interested, in such way as you may deem most suitable, the results of the late Special Test Examination, so far as your Department is concerned.
