No. 209. From W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 24th March 1865, No. 646.

General Department.

With reference to correspondence regarding public buildings at Dowlaishweram, referred to me for report, I have the honor to suggest that, to save the expense of entertaining extra Policemen, which will certainly be necessary, if the buildings be handed over to the custody of the Police, Pensioners should be employed on the duty, as was recently done for the protection of buildings at Arcot.

2. The Police Budget cannot provide for any extra establishment.
