Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th March 1865.

No. 213. Read the following letter from J. RHODE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 27th March 1865.

In enclosing a telegram from Nellore, announcing an out-break of cholera in the Jail at that station, I have the honor to request that 30 tents may be immediately forwarded to Doogoorauzepatam as requested, and that two European Regimental tents, for field hospital accommodation, may be sent with them.

2. I have telegraphed, in reply—"tents will be sent, but move your prisoners out under pandals."

Telegram from C. R. PELLY, Esq., Nellore, to J. RHODE, Esq., Madras, dated 27th March 1865.

Cholera broken out in Jail most virulently; 73 cases already—14 fatal. Number in Jail 470, calculated to hold about 250. No tents here. No public buildings available. Sanction immediate removal of one hundred men. If possible, send tents for two hundred—three hundred, if procurable. Tents should be despatched by boats to Doogoorauzepatam. On receipt of reply, will write to Collector to have bandies ready to bring them in. 27th-11.

No. 214. ORDER THEREON, 28th March 1865, No. 479.

Communicated to the Quarter Master General's Department, whence emergent orders will be issued for the immediate despatch, by boats, to Doogoorauzepatam, of the tents applied for in the foregoing letter. The Collector will arrange for the conveyance of the tents to Nellore, when landed.
