Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th April 1865.

No. 60. Read the following letter from H. D. COOK, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Calicut, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Calicut, 29th March 1865, No. 134.

In order to regulate the attendance of the Court servants and parties in Civil and Session Cases, and generally to establish a better system of proceeding in the business of this Court, it is deemed expedient to put up a good Clock in a conspicuous place of the Court House.

2. An eight day, striking, wall or hanging Clock can be procured at P. Orr & Sons at Madras, for Rupees 36.

3. Without putting Government to any inconvenience in procuring the Clock, I beg to state that I have in deposit in my Court Rupees 85-0-10, being the proceeds of sale of certain old Jail bells and other unclaimed sundries, which I would suggest might be appropriated in purchasing a Clock of the above description.

4. I have, therefore, the honor to request the sanction of Government for purchasing a Clock for the use of this Court, for the above amount, from the deposit money adverted to.

No. 61. ORDER THEREON, 6th April 1865, No. 539.

The Governor in Council grants authority for the purchase of a Clock for the Civil and Session Court of Calicut, at a cost not exceeding Rupees 50, inclusive of transit charges, and directs that the cost of it be defrayed from savings in the Budget under Law and Justice.

2. The suggestion made in paragraph 3 of the foregoing letter, as to the source from which the Clock should be paid for, cannot be adopted, as it would be a departure from the rule requiring the exhibition of gross and not net receipts and disbursements in the accounts.
