Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
10th April 1865.

No. 85. Read the following letter from G. E. COWER, Esq., Judge of the Madras Court of Small Causes, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 27th March 1865.

I beg to solicit a re-consideration by His Excellency the Governor in Council of the Order, No. 730, dated 17th May 1864, pronounced upon my letter of the 16th May 1864, applying for an increase of salary.

2. In addition to what I then urged in support of my application, I am now in a position to shew, from the yearly reports, that, since the extension of the jurisdiction, the Court, up to the end of the past year, has more than paid its expenses, shewing a balance in favor of Government.

3. The second Judge of the Court at Calcutta receives Rupees 1500 per month, and the 3rd and 4th, each, enter on Rupees 1000, with an increase of Rupees 50 per month after each year of service, up to Rupees 1250, which is the monthly salary of the present third Judge.

4. The first Judges at the three Presidency Towns receive the same salary, viz., Rupees 2000 ; and I can safely affirm that the Madras Court is the only one in existence wherein such a disproportion is allowed to exist between the salary of the first and second Judges, and I would urge, most respectfully, that, after my length of service, it will be a very great hardship if I am not put on the same salary as my brother Judges in the other Presidencies.

No. 86. ORDER THEREON, 10th April 1865, No. 562.
The Governor in Council must decline to recommend any increase to the salary assigned to the office of second Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Madras, the salary in question, Rupees 1000 per mensem, being, in his opinion, an adequate remuneration for the duties devolving on the second Judge.

2. The increase which was made last year to the salary of the first Judge was not consequent on any recommendation from the Madras Government.
