No. 570. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails, to ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 13th March 1865, No. 548 :—

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that the number of prisoners in the Jail at Guntoor, taken from the returns of last month, is now so large (329) that I consider it necessary that some reduction should be made. No transfer to any other existing Jail is at present allowable. Colonel Anderson some time since suggested a transfer to Bezoarah of a gang, and I can offer no other suggestion than that, if an Officer is resident there, and proper quarters; the Workshops, able, that the shortest sentenced men should be there transferred for channel, dangerous quarry work.

but think I understood from Colonel Orr that the Workshops were not in use as such.

Referred to the Public Works Department.

Chief Secretary.
