It is provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure that upon the return of a writ of habeas corpus to the District

3. The persons charged with offences, to imprisonment within 10 or 15 days, send up certain cases to the Jail, for the purpose of getting them (persons) worked. In such cases the period of sentence expired, and the parties, who were sentenced to the above imprisonment, could obtain copies, &c., and go to the distant Taluqs, and the District, to prefer an appeal; and in other cases, if the period of sentence expired, they were scarcely time on account of the Revenue Settlement, to go to the Jail, and undergo imprisonment. The above sentence, though it was intended to be of no avail.
