of some few feelings, of which,
probably from the paper, few visit.
The gossip and little tattling too, which must have arisen out of this affair, cannot have added to the prestige and respect that ought to attach to the office of C.O.S. Judge at a station where the native population is large and where the higher classes are of so mixed a character as that at Kellacy. It is therefore, very much a subject for regret that regardless of her high position, the Hon. Mrs. Thorne had written the last of the com. dated 13th last last - and then have shuddered at unbecomingly & appended thereto their official representation of C.O.S. Judge.
In regard to the other points of the matter - especially concerning the new taking of them in the remarks at the House Mr. Lyndall has written - 30.4.65. W.D.

of his correspondence with Dr. Jackson, and complaining of that officer's habit of interfering in matters connected with the business of the Civil and Sesson Court. The High Court however declined to interfere.
 On learning the conviction of Chennapah, Mr. Dandson addressed another letter to Dr. Jackson, expressing his satisfaction at the result of the prosecution, but at same time giving him a lecture on his alleged habit of mixing himself ⁱⁿ ~~up~~ in the affairs of natives, which ~~expressed~~ could not ~~be~~ ~~sent to Dr. Jackson & Dr. Jackson~~ ~~conveyed to him~~ and which was altogether uncalled for, and out of place. This and the other letters written by Mr.
 Dandson are signed by him as Acting Civil and Sesson Judge, although the matter to which they incomprehensible reference

Court was in 4 The Governor in Council at the same time seems it proper to remark that Major General de Laud has gone beyond the line of his duty in making the observations contained in his letter to the Adjutant General of the 28th March. He has not the whole case before him, and if he had, Mr. Dandson, who holds a high official position at Bellamy is in no way
