Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
14th January 1865.

No. 139. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 23rd December 1864, No. 126.

I have the honor to submit an application under the provisions of Section 19, Act XIII of 1856, for a pension to Joseph Freeman of the Mounted Police whose horse fell with him on the night of the 20th June 1864, when on duty, causing the fracture of his left arm which still remains disabled; and the perfect use of which the Medical Officer does not consider it probable he will ever recover.

2. Freeman is a man of good character, and has served in the Police for six years and four months, during which time the regulated deduction on account of the Superannuation Fund has been made from his pay. The amount of pension, if sanctioned, can be met at once from the sum provided in the Budget for 1864-65.

3. Freeman is at present in receipt of a pension of 15 Rupees per mensem as an out-pensioner of Chelsea Hospital.

4. A Medical Certificate is forwarded along with the tabular Statement.

No. 140. ORDER THEREON, 14th January 1865, No. 88.

Before sanctioning the grant of the pension proposed in the foregoing letter, the Governor in Council resolves to direct that the Commissioner of Police will arrange with the Principal Inspector General Medical Department, for the appointment of a Committee of Medical Officers to examine and report on the case of Joseph Freeman as to whether the fracture of his left arm will disable him for further service in the Mounted Police.

Trooper Joseph Freeman of the Mounted Police Force having applied to me for my professional opinion of his present condition and state of health on which to found his claim for pension in terms of the Police Act; in consequence of an accident recently sustained by him when on duty, I hereby certify that, although the bones of the fractured elbow joint are reunited and a certain amount of movement can be made with the arm, he is never likely at his time of life to recover the perfect use of the limb, and that in my opinion, in his present state, he comes fairly within the meaning of Clause XIX of the Police Act referred to.

It is the practice to give discharged prisoners the means of returning going to their homes. In the case of transferred Convicts & deported State Prisoners, it was usual to have them sent to the Magistrate of the District whence they came, & to leave it to him to liberate them. Lunatics brought from the interior have been dealt with in this manner. But in a late instance, that of the Salem Convicts at Alderdrad, Mr. Rolfe considered that the cost of the guard going & returning might be saved, & that the discharged prisoner might be presented with
