Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
23rd June 1865.

No. 174. Read the following letter from A. P. HOWELL, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Simla, the 31st May 1865, No. 1152.

Home Department.
Judicial.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 483, dated the 29th March, submitting petitions from prisoners C. E. Ross, and J. Pendergast, praying that they may be granted "a conditional pardon to proceed to Port Blair."

2. In reply, I am directed to state that the prisoners may be forwarded to Port Blair, when a convenient opportunity may occur, but that special expense should not be incurred for the purpose.

3. In the case of the prisoner Pendergast, who would have had to return to Calcutta, to work out his sentence of imprisonment, at the expiration of his current sentence of Penal servitude, a conditional pardon will be granted; the conditions being that the prisoner shall reside at Port Blair till such time as the two sentences shall have expired, doing such work as the Superintendent of Port Blair may appoint, and obeying all lawful orders issued to him by the Superintendent.

4. Formal licenses for each prisoner will be prepared in the office, and sent to the Superintendent at Port Plair.

No. 175. ORDER THEREON, 23rd June 1865, No. 890.

Communicated to the Commissioner of Police, with reference to his letter, dated the 9th March last, No. 29. Lieutenant Colonel Wilson will arrange with the Superintendent of Marine for sending the two prisoners to Port Blair, when a convenient opportunity may occur.
