Note by the Honorable A. D. Phillips on Proceedings of Government No. 2401 dated 28 June 1865.

The case exhibits on the part of the Head Assistant Magistrate, Mr.
Sathoway, such gross ignorance of the first principles of the law of evidence, that in directing the session judge's proceedings to be communicated to Mr. A. for his information, I would express surprise that an Officer of his standing should have been led into the commission of the errors to which the session judge points and have followed it up by the infliction of corporal punishment.
