Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
26th June 1866.

Read the following papers :—

No. 249. From the Principal Sudder Ameen of Rajahmundry, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Rajahmundry, 26th May 1866.

I have the honor to inform you that Maidavolu Sambasiva Row, the Head English Writer of my Court, went up last year for the Special Test Examination prescribed for District Moonsiff and Pleader, and was declared, by the Supplement to the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 23rd March last, to have been qualified for the office of District Moonsiff and Pleader, through the medium of Telugu language ; but from the list of passed candidates recently published, he appears to have passed only the Criminal Test. He therefore requests me to recommend him to Government, as a special case, that if he be required, under the revised rules, to show a competent knowledge in the Civil Test laid down for the District Moonsiff, and that his application to Government, dated the 24th instant, to exempt him from further examination be not granted, he may be permitted to undergo the Test I. A, Judicial, Civil, higher grade, through the medium of Telugu language, on the grounds that he is a Government servant of 25 years' standing; that he was once declared to have been qualified for the office of District Moonsiff and Pleader, as he had obtained the required number of marks to qualify himself for that office on an average; that he studied last year all the subjects in Telugu, and there is no sufficient time to prepare himself for the Examination in English, as the list declaring that he passed only the Criminal Test is very lately published.

2. I have, therefore, the honor to submit the foregoing case for the favorable consideration of Government, and request that his prayer may be granted under the foregoing reasons, and in consideration of his good character.

Referred to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, for his remarks.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
12th June 1866.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Acting Chief Secretary.

No. 250. From the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 14th June 1866, No. 239.

With reference to your endorsement on letter from the Principal Sudder Ameen of Rajahmundry, dated 26th ultimo, No. 98, I am directed to state that, as M. Sambasiva Row has passed for the office of District Moonsiff and Pleader, under the old rules, which were in force at the last examination, no further remarks seem to be called for.

No. 251. ORDER THEREON, 27th June 1866, No. 1004.

Sambasiva Row having passed the District Moonsiff's and Pleader's Test under the old rules, which were in force in 1865, he is not required to pass any further examination for the Office.
