Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
29th June 1866.

No. 277. Read the following Telegram from the Civil Judge, Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kurnool, 29th June 1866.

Cholera is raging here. Two gentlemen and a lady have been attacked. Many servants carried off. In the town it is exceedingly bad and not abating. The Civil Surgeon is ill and, according to the Regimental Surgeon, will not be fit for duty for at least a week. The Regiment has no Dresser. If this continues the Regiment will have to go into tents, and will of course take its Doctor. I earnestly solicit additional Medical aid, an Assistant Surgeon if possible. He should bring some cholera medicine. The supply here is either exhausted or very low. A telegram in reply will relieve anxiety. 29th, 15-20.

No. 278. ORDER THEREON, 29th June 1866, No. 1021.

Communicated to the Principal Inspector General, Medical Department, for immediate attention.
