Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23th January 1866.

No. 177. Read the following letter from the Agent to the Governor, Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Jeypore, 29th December 1865, No. 397.

In acknowledging G. O., Judicial, No. 1799, of 16th December instant, I beg to enquire, on behalf of Lieutenant Smith, my Assistant, from what date the increase of salary now sanctioned is to have effect.

2. The recommendation was made by me on 26th March 1864 (No. 46), and the Government agreed to it on 13th September following (paragraph 5 of G. O., No. 1358): fourteen months have elapsed in the one case, and twenty months in the other. I presume it would take effect from the earlier date; but as the Order of Government is silent on the point, I submit this reference.

No. 178. ORDER THEREON, 26th January 1866, No. 103.

The Government of India will be requested to permit Lieutenant Smith to draw the increased rate of pay from the 8th October 1864, the date on which the increase was recommended by the Madras Government.

2. Meanwhile, Lieutenant Smith can draw the increased rate from the 15th September 1865, the date on which it was sanctioned by the Secretary of State.
