No. 270. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department; dated Simla, 21st July 1866, No. 1458.

Read Endorsement of the Home Department, No. 2042, dated the 20th June 1866, forwarding, for consideration and orders, an application from the Government of Madras, for sanction, as a temporary arrangement, to the entertainment of a second writer, on Rupees 20 per mensem, in those Jails only where such addition to the establishment may be absolutely necessary, and to the increase of the pay of the first writer to Rupees 40 a month.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that it will suffice to allow Rupees 35 a month for the Head Writer in a District Jail, and this rate is accordingly sanctioned.

If the second writer be allowed, the establishment of each District Jail will include a Deputy Jailer, on Rupees 20, a Head Clerk, and a second Clerk, on Rupees 20, or in all three men. In the Bombay Jails only two men are allowed, viz., the Head Clerk, and (for two years) a second Clerk, excepting in three of the largest Jails, where a Deputy Jailer is given in addition. So long as a Deputy Jailer, whose appointment is superfluous according to the arrangements in Bengal and Bombay Jails, is retained in the ordinary staff of a Madras District Jail, it is inexpedient to allow, even temporarily, a second writer. For the Central Jails, however, at Coimbatore and Rajahmundry, a second writer, on Rupees 20 a month, is allowed, as proposed by the Government of Madras.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Home Department, and that the original paper received from that Department be returned, a copy being kept for record.

Also, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Accountant General, Madras.
