Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

27th August 1866.

No. 279. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 13th August 1866, No. 58.

In accordance with the instructions contained in paragraph 278 of the Jail Rules, I have the honor to report that a convict named Peria Curpen, under sentence of imprisonment for three months, one month of which has expired, was released from the Jail at Madura on the 7th instant, under the provisions of paragraph 277 of the same rules. A Medical Certificate, recommending the immediate release of the prisoner, was duly furnished, and also the written consent of both official visitors. I have not forwarded the original papers, but will do so in any subsequent case of the kind if such is considered necessary.

No. 280. ORDER THEREON, 27th August 1866, No. 1334.

The Governor in Council approves of the release of the convict Peria Curpen from the Jail at Madura on the 7th instant, and is pleased to remit the unexpired portion of his sentence, under Section 54 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

2. In future reports of release under Section 277 of the Jail Rules, the Inspector General is requested to state the nature of the charge on which the prisoner was convicted and sentenced.
