Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th September 1866.

No. 48. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 27th August 1866, No. 61.

In the month of July 1863, a lunatic named Bodaputy Ramdoo was committed to the Jail at Nellore, under the provisions of Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. He has been there ever since, and, although placed frequently under medical treatment, little or no change has taken place in his state, and he is reported to be noisy and troublesome from time to time. Under these circumstances, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction his removal to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras. I have ascertained that he can be accommodated therein.

No. 49. ORDER THEREON, 4th September 1866, No. 1386.

The Governor in Council directs, accordingly, that the lunatic Bodaputy Ramdoo be removed to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras, as soon as the Medical Officer in charge of the latter reports to the Inspector General of Jails that the Asylum is again healthy.
