Account Department.

In continuation of my letter, dated 23rd August 1866, No. 1387, I have the honor to report that the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Western Range, has submitted a very earnest application for an increase of one Rupee batta to the Constables in Collegal and part of Suttimungalum and Bowany Taluqs of the Coimbatore District. He writes, "the men in places are literally starving, "and are resigning right and left."

2. The amount will be under one hundred Rupees a month, and can be met from savings under the Grant of Government of India for applying savings to improving pay of existing establishment.

3. I beg that this grant may be made from the 1st instant.
