Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 18th September 1866.

Read the following papers:—

No. 159. From the Inspector General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 7th August 1866, No. 1268.

General Department.

I have the honor to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, the accompanying application, that an exception may be made in favor of Pennatoor Veeraragavayah, Inspector of Police in Nellore, and that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Test, Higher Grade, without having passed the General Test.

2. Pennatoor Veeraragavayah entered the Government Service in May 1854, and served until September 1858 in a District Moonsiff's Office in North Arcot. He resigned the Service of his own accord, in order to proceed to his native place. I referred to the Collector, and could ascertain nothing unfavorable of him. Within six months from date of resignation, viz., in March 1859, he joined the Police of North Arcot, at a time when it was scarcely possible to obtain the services of men of his caste and respectability. He worked with singular zeal and self-denial (I had many opportunities of observing him), and contributed, probably more than any Native, to the successful introduction of the Police into that District.

3. His ability and integrity marked him for promotion, and he has for four or five years been employed as Court Inspector in the heavy District of Nellore, where he has given every satisfaction.

4. I beg to express a strong conviction that the concession is well deserved. It is impossible that an Officer who has the duties of a Court Inspector in Nellore should be able to find time for study of unprofessional subjects; and it will be hard to deprive a most deserving servant of Government of the privilege of having entered the Service in 1854 on account of a break of six months in 1858-59.

From the Superintendent of Police, Nellore, to the Inspector General of Police; dated Nellore, 2nd June 1866, No. 264.

I have the honor to request your favorable consideration of my recommendation that an exception be made in favor of Inspector Pennatoor Veeraragavayah, in permitting him to appear for examination for the Criminal Test, Higher Grade, although he has not passed the General Test.

2. He entered the Government Service in May 1854, and served until September 1858, when family affairs compelled him to resign the appointment he then held in Chittoor, as it was absolutely necessary that he should proceed to South Arcot.

3. He was re-employed in Government Service in March 1859, but as he was not in Government employment on the 1st January 1859, he is not, I believe, under the rules, allowed to go up for the Special Test without having passed the General Test.

4. He has been employed in three different Districts since he entered the Police, and has had little time or opportunity for studying such subjects as Geography and History, but he is well acquainted with English, and quite capable of conducting all the English correspondence which falls on Head Quarter Inspectors in the Police.

5. His duties as Court Inspector have obliged him to acquaint himself with all the subjects included in the Higher Criminal Test Examination.

6. I trust the Inspector General will recommend the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations to make an exception in his favor, by exempting him from passing the General Test.

Referred to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations.
FORT SAINT GEORGE,
18th August 1866.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief secretary.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

No. 160. From the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated 6th September 1866, No. 334.

With reference to your endorsement on a letter from the Inspector General of Police, dated 7th August 1866, No. 1268, I am directed to state that, though, according to the rules, Inspector P. Veeraragavayah cannot be exempted from the General Test, yet, under the very special circumstances mentioned by the Inspector General, the Commissioner is of opinion that the case is one in which the rules might be relaxed.

No. 161. ORDER THEREON, 18th September 1866, No. 1451.

Under the circumstances brought to notice, the Governor in Council is pleased to make an exception in favor of Pennatoor Veeraragavayah, Inspector of Police in Nellore, and accordingly exempts him from passing the General Test Examination, (True Extract).
