Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

13th October 1866.

No. 152. Read the following letter from the Collector of Ganjam, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Chatterpore, 19th September 1866, No. 2496.

Adverting to Government Order, No. 1369, of the 1st September 1866, directing the prosecution of cases by the Government Vakeel, I have the honor to report that, shortly before receipt of this Order, I nominated as Public Prosecutor another of the Court Vakeels, whom the Judge recommended to me as the only one of his Vakeels competent to conduct a Criminal prosecution. The Judge has subsequently assured me that the Government Vakeel is quite unequal to such a duty, and inquires what arrangement is to be made. As the office of Government Vakeel should be held by a man of ability, and the Judge's estimate of the Government Vakeel's powers is low, it seems to me that, in the present instance, there would be no injustice in transferring the office to the person whom I have already nominated as Prosecutor, provided always that the Government consider it advisable to unite the duties in the person of one individual. But, on the other hand, there can be nothing objectionable in the Civil and Criminal duties being conducted by different Vakeels, so long as they themselves are satisfied with the remuneration they get. I beg to be favored with the orders of Government on the subject.

No. 153. ORDER THEREON, 13th October 1866, No. 1615.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that, as already decided in G. O., 1st September last, No. 1369, the prosecution of Criminal cases should, as a rule, be entrusted to the Government Vakeel; it being, at the same time, open to the Magistrate to exercise his discretion, if, on special occasions, he should deem it advisable to employ any other than the Government Vakeel to prosecute a particular case.

2. If the present Government Vakeel in Ganjam is unequal to the performance of his duties, it is for the Collector to procure his removal, and then nominate another person for the approbation of Government, as required by Section 37, Regulation XIV of 1816.
