Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 5th February 1866.

No. 38. Read the following letter from M. CROSS, Esq., Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Negapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Negapatam, 15th January 1866, No. 20.

Adverting to the correspondence which, I understand, has recently passed between Government and the Collector of Tanjore, respecting the form by which Mr. Logan took the oath of Justice of Peace, I have reason to conclude, in the absence of a Commission of the Peace from the High Court for my being sworn in, that the oath I took before the Civil Judge of Tranquebar is informal.

2. If such be the case, and Government desire a Commission of the Peace to issue, I have the honor to request that it may be directed to the Civil Judge of Tanjore, which station is more accessible than Tranquebar.

No. 39. ORDER THEREON, 5th February 1866, No. 163.

Mr. Maurice Cross not having been nominated by Government as a Justice of the Peace, the oath he is stated to have taken before the Tranquebar Civil Court cannot be considered as sufficient to warrant his performing the duties appertaining to that office.

2. The Governor in Council sees no reason at present to direct the issue of a Commission of the Peace on Mr. Cross' behalf.

(True Extract).
