No. 385. ORDER THEREON, 15th October 1866, No. 2,803.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government have recently transferred Mr. W. E. Underwood to the Madura District; its complement of Deputy Collector and Magistrates will thus be complete.
2. Mr. Underwood has not full powers, but the Government cannot at present post a Deputy Magistrate with such powers to the District. The Treasury charge is peculiarly suited for a Native Deputy Collector, and Government are not prepared to move Seshagiri Row from it.
3. Mr. Levinge will report whether either of his Covenanted Assistants can properly be vested with full powers, as a special case.
4. The employment of the Salt Deputy Collector as a Magistrate cannot be permitted, his own duties are ample, if properly performed; and he would, if vested with Magisterial powers, often be Judge in cases connected with his own Department.
5. The transfer of the Periacollum Talook to the Sub-Collector will be separately considered.
