14th November 1866.

No. 131. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of the Godavery District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cocanada, 29th October 1866, No. 295.

With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from my Acting Head Assistant Magistrate, I have the honor to request that, under the provisions of Act VII of 1854, application be made to the Resident at Hyderabad to procure the surrender of the Brinjaries referred to, to stand their trial before the Sub-Magistrate of Chintalapudi.

2. Though the Police Constables exceeded the letter of the instructions of Government, I do not think they transgressed the spirit of them, because wandering vagabonds, such as Brinjaries, could hardly ever be apprehended, as now, with stolen property in their possession, were their track for a moment lost after it was once obtained.

From the Acting Head Assistant Magistrate in charge of the Ellore Deputy Magistrate's Division, to the Magistrate of the Godavery District, Cocanada; dated Rajahmundry, 26th October 1866, No. 18.

I have the honor to report the following particulars of a case of robbery which occurred in the village of Settinarigudem, Chintalapudi Division, on the 16th September last.

2. Certain inhabitants of Ellore, returning from Doomagudem, were sleeping at night near a tank in the village of Settinarigudem, and were attacked by six Brinjaries, and robbed of property, of the value of 345 Rupees.

3. The matter was reported to the Police Officer in charge of the Chintalapudi Station, and the Brinjaries were pursued by the Police into the Nizam's Territories, and the whole six were captured at Sayamaravupalem, and delivered over to the village authorities of Mustimanda. Property to the value of 132 Rupees was recovered. The Police, having no authority to deal with the men, returned to their station.

4. I request to know what steps are now to be taken for their being delivered over to be tried for the above offence.

5. The Orders of Government, dated 8th May 1866, No. 701, refer to "the usual requisition for the surrender (of prisoners) to the Nizam's Government, through the Resident." I presume that this requisition should be made by you, and I, therefore, refer the matter for orders.

6. The names of the Brinjaries are :—

| 1. Burabala Pakiru. | 4. Vadite Baddu. |
| 2. Burabala Davuria. | 5. Burabala Lalu. |
| 3. Vadite Yadina. | 6. Burabala Saphala. |

The wife of Burabala Pakiru was also concerned in the matter.

7. From the report of the Chintalapudi Sub-Magistrate, I was of opinion that the Police Constables had taken active measures in exercising the functions of their Office in the Nizam's Territory. I have pointed to the Sub-Magistrate that this was opposed to the Orders of Government, and I also called the attention of the Superintendent of Police to the matter.

No. 132. ORDER THEREON, 14th November 1866, No. 1787.

It is competent to the Magistrate to address the usual requisition to the Resident, for the surrender of the parties referred to. Act VII of 1854 is inapplicable.
