Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
18th November 1866.

No. 187. Read the following letter from the Acting Session Judge of Cuddapah, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cuddapah, 12th November 1866, No. 404.

I have the honor to report, for the orders of Government, the following case, under the provisions of Section 394 of the Procedure Code.

2. A Brahmin woman, named Surammah, was committed for trial during this Sessions, on the charge of theft and escaping from legal custody.

3. The Jury found the prisoner guilty of the offences charged, but considered that she was of unsound mind at the time of commission.

4. There was evidence to show that the prisoner's habits had led her neighbours to suppose that she was mad. Her demeanour during her trial was scarcely that of an insane woman, and I would rather describe her as a person of very weak intellect.

5. I am of opinion that the prisoner may be handed over to the care of her relatives, and that it is not necessary to confine her in a Lunatic Asylum.

6. The woman is now in custody, pending the receipt of the orders of Government.

No. 188. ORDER THEREON, 18th November 1866, No. 1823.

Under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Governor in Council directs that the prisoner Surammah be made over to her relatives, on their giving the prescribed security.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.

To the Acting Session Judge of Cuddapah.
