Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd November 1866.

No. 313. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of Ganjam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Chetterpore, 17th November 1866, No. 210.

Some months ago, I offered a reward of 200 Rupees for a Khond, named Judra Majee, who had been the principal actor in the murder (as was supposed) of two Constables after the close of last year's rising. As regards the amount of the reward, I was under the mistake that Rupees 200 was the limit which such offers might reach at the discretion of the Magistrate; but, as I have only power to offer one hundred Rupees, I must now ask the sanction of Government for the disbursement of the extra hundred Rupees. Judra Majee has been brought to justice and convicted of culpable homicide, and the reward should now be distributed among those who were instrumental in his arrest.

No. 314. ORDER THEREON, 22nd November 1866, No. 1887.
