Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th November 1866.

No. 318. Read the following letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 26th November 1866, No. 66.

I am desired by the High Court to recommend to Government the abolition of the District Moonsiff's Court of Royachoti, in the Cuddapah Zillah.

2. The total number of Suits pending before all the Moonsiffs at the end of September was a little over 1900. There are now seven Moonsiffs' Courts, and if the amount of work were the only thing to be considered, it might perhaps be possible to dispense with more than one. The nature of the country, however, renders this impracticable.

3. The question was very carefully considered by Mr. Thompson, when acting as Civil Judge of Cuddapah, and the conclusion at which he arrived was that the Royachoti Court might very well be spared. The late Civil Judge, Mr. Ratcliffe, was of the same opinion, and the High Court have expressed their approval of the proposal.

4. In the event of Government adopting the same view, the precise date at which the Court may be closed will be communicated in due course to the Account Department.

No. 319. ORDER THEREON, 28th November 1866, No. 1889.

The Governor in Council sanctions the abolition of the District Moonsiff's Court at Royachoti, from such date as the High Court may hereafter determine.

(True Extract).
