No. 86. Read the following letter from P. O'SULLIVAN, Esq., Acting Clerk of the Crown, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 10th December 1866.

With reference to Act XIII of 1865, Section 28, I am directed by the High Court to state that the depositions in the case of Annora Cullin, a British subject, charged with theft in a building, have been received from the Justice of the Peace, Cannanore, in the Crown Office.

2. I am further directed to inquire, whether it is the intention of His Lordship the Governor in Council to issue, under the provisions of the above Act, a commission, authorizing a Judge of the High Court to hold sittings at any place other than the Court's usual place of sittings.

3. The Register of Preliminary Inquiry in this case, held before the Justice of the Peace, Cannanore, is herewith forwarded, from which may be gathered the nature of the charge.

No. 87. To the Honorable Sir ADAM BITTLESTON, KNIGHT, Acting Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 14th December 1866, No. 1943.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. O'Sullivan's letter of the 10th instant, I am directed to inform you that it is not the intention of the Governor in Council to issue a commission under the provisions of Act XIII of 1865 for the trial of the case therein referred to.

2. The enclosure received with Mr. O'Sullivan's letter is returned.
