Accounts.

Read again a letter from the Comptroller General of Accounts, dated 7th September 1866, No. 562, forwarding a draft of revised rules for regulating the issue of Bills of Exchange, Remittance Transfer Receipts, &c.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that it is proposed to continue in these Rules the indulgence of Privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts upon certain Treasuries to Officers in Civil employ, whether Civil Covenanted, Military or Uncovenanted Officers.

2. Inasmuch, however, as Currency Notes are more or less available for remittance in the several Governments and Administrations, and as the Money Order system has been extended throughout British India and the Berars, the Governor General in Council considers that the reasons which influenced the grant of the indulgence of Privilege Remittances to the Civil Officers abovementioned no longer have force, and the Regulations which have authorized the indulgence hitherto will, accordingly, be omitted in the Comptroller General's revised edition of Bill Rules.

ORDERED that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to the several Departments of the Government of India, the Local Governments and Administrations, the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the Accountants General and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.
