Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

26th December 1866.

No. 189A. Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Magistrate of Nellore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Nellore, 13th December 1866, No. 62.

With reference to the appointment of Mr. H. E. Stokes, to act as Head Assistant Collector and Magistrate of this District, in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 4th instant, I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that he has not been specially vested with the powers which he is to exercise,* but as an Officer acting as Head Assistant Magistrate has authority to exercise the full powers of a Magistrate while in charge of the office, under the Notification of the 8th November 1864, I propose, pending further orders, to consider him as vested with the said powers.

* Order of Government, 12th July 1865, No. 970, Judicial Department.

Page 783 of the Fort Saint George Gazette of 11th November 1864.

No. 189B. ORDER THEREON, 26th December 1866, No. 2001.

Under Section 23 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Mr. Henry Edward Stokes, Acting Head Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate of Nellore, is invested with the powers of a Magistrate.

2. Mr. Dykes is mistaken in supposing that Mr. Stokes can exercise the powers of a Magistrate without being specially invested with them by Government.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.

To the Magistrate of Nellore.
