The letter from the bank, called for to be paid from the
 New York and Suffolk & Western
 in the summer of 1865.
 being then closed.
 I had a letter from the bank that 150 lbs
 of silver was to be a substitute for silver to pay when the bank
 was opened -
 there was a strong
 current in the bank of the Suffolk & Western Council, so that the bank the order was made in 1865.
