No. 123. Read the following letter from the Honorable the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, to His Excellency the Governor in Council, &c., &c., &c., Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 8th March 1866.

I have appointed Mr. O'Sullivan to act as Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor during Mr. Mayne's tenure of the office of Advocate General, and request the approval of your Excellency in Council.

2. Mr. O'Sullivan has also, I observe, received the acting appointment of Assistant Secretary to the Legislative Council, and so long as he holds the three offices I think it right that the duties of the office of Reporter, in which Mr. O'Sullivan has been acting, should be performed by another qualified gentleman. I have therefore, subject to your approval, appointed Mr. John M. C. Mills to officiate as Reporter with the full salary, Mr. O'Sullivan being first formally confirmed in the office, as he should have been some time back.

No. 124. To the Honorable the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 16th March 1866, No. 391.

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 8th instant, I am directed to inform you that the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the appointment of Mr. P. O'Sullivan to act as Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor, during the employment of Mr. Mayne on other duty.

2. His Excellency in Council also approves of the appointment of Mr. Mills to act as Reporter of the High Court on the full salary attached to that office, during the employment of Mr. O'Sullivan as Acting Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor, and as Assistant Secretary to Government in the Legislative Department, Mr. O'Sullivan being formally confirmed in the office which has been permanently vacated by Mr. W. Stokes.
