No. 223. Read the following letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 21st April 1866, No. 25.

In the estimate of furniture for the District Moonsiffs' Courts, which accompanied my letter of the 5th January 1865, provision was made for four only of the seven Courts in the Rajahmundry Zillah. The Civil Judge suggested that it would be better to wait a year, to see whether one or more of the other Courts might not be abolished. Since then, the additional Moonsiff's Court of Georgepetta has been closed, but there seems no reason to suppose that either of the two remaining Courts (Amalapur and Peddapur) can be dispensed with. I am, therefore, directed by the Judges of the High Court to request sanction for the purchase of furniture for those Courts, the estimated cost being Rupees (211-8-0) two hundred and eleven, and Annas eight.

No. 224. ORDER THEREON, 25th April 1866, No. 627.

Sanction granted, accordingly, for the purchase of the furniture required for the District Moonsiffs' Courts named in the foregoing letter, at a cost of Rupees (211-8-0) two hundred and eleven, and Annas eight.
