Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
16th January 1866.

No. 116. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 30th November 1865, No. 3156.

Read Endorsement from the Home Department, No. 2493, dated 4th October 1865, forwarding, for consideration and orders, a letter from the Government of Madras, inquiring whether pensions granted to Policemen disabled for further service from the effects of injuries received in the performance of duty shall be paid from the General Revenues, or from the Superannuation Fund.

RESOLUTION.

As pensions for injuries received in execution of duty are not likely to be numerous, it can matter little to the financial state of the Police Superannuation Fund whether the pensions are debited to the Fund or to the General Revenues. Inasmuch, however, as the pensions will be paid through the agency employed for disbursing the pensions of the Police Superannuation Fund, it would be far more convenient, practically, to charge the pensions to the Fund, as the debit of them to the General Revenues would involve distinctions in the accounts, which will give more trouble than the pensions are worth. On this ground, and having regard to the precedent cited by the Madras Government, and to those in the Central Provinces and the Punjab, of certain injury pensions having been debited to Police Superannuation Funds, the Governor General in Council directs that that debit be followed as a rule.

2. This order applies, of course, only to the cases of members of the Police Force who do not belong to grades qualifying for pension from the General Revenues.

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Home Department, for communication to the Government of Madras, and to the other Local Governments and Administrations.

Original paper returned, copy having been kept.

Ordered, also, that a copy of the Resolution be sent to the Comptroller General of Accounts; the Accountants General, Bengal, North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Madras, and Bombay; and the Deputy Accountants General, Central Provinces and Hyderabad.
