Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th May 1866.

No. 148A. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 7th May 1866, No. 180.

With reference to paragraph 9 of the Commissioner's letter to your address, dated 28th September 1864, No. 399, and to paragraph 2 of G. O., 21st October 1864, No. 1931, I am directed to forward the enclosed letter* from the Collector of Vizagapatam, and to say that, under the circumstances, the Commissioner recommends that Kapila Virarazu may be confirmed in his Sub-Magistracy, to which no Revenue duties are attached.

* Dated 5th April 1866, No. 296.

2. The case of K. Virarazu was precisely similar to that of Allipayalu Jaga nadum, mentioned in the G. O. above referred to, but he failed to pass the examination in 1864.

3. At Mr. Carmichael's request, the Commissioner permitted him to appear for examination in Magisterial subjects alone in 1865, but intimated that, even if he succeed, his confirmation would depend upon the orders of Government.

From the Collector of Vizagapatam, to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, Madras; dated Vizagapatam, 5th April 1866, No. 296.

Referring to paragraph 2 of your letter, No. 260, of 15th July 1865, I have the honor to inquire whether the person there called "Viraya," properly "Kapila Virarazu," has passed the Magisterial test or not.

2. As his name is not in the published List, the question will appear superfluous, but it may be that the Examiners overlooked, or were unacquainted with, the fact that he did not go up in Revenue subjects; your letter above noticed granting him an implied permission to go up in Magisterial subjects only, subject to a reference to Government, that is, I suppose, on the result of the examination being favorable to him.

3. It appears, further, that no Revenue papers were sent for him. He answered the Magisterial sets of questions; and if he passed so far, I beg you will be pleased to recommend to Government that he may be confirmed in the post to which he has been conditionally appointed, viz., Sub-Magistrate of Ankapilly. I may mention he is one of the two officers referred to in paragraph 9 of your letter to Government, 28th September 1864, No. 399.

No. 148B. ORDER THEREON, 15th May 1866, No. 740.

If Kapila Virarazu has passed in the Magisterial subjects, the Governor in Council has no objection to his being confirmed in the Sub-Magistrateship of Ankapilly, to which no Revenue duties are attached.
