Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

17th May 1866.

No. 157. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 14th May 1866, No. 9.

I have the honor to report that, as the services of Mr. McCarthy, Assistant Magistrate in Kurnool are required in the District, the Acting Magistrate, Mr. Sullivan, has placed his Junior Assistant, Mr. Turner, in charge of the Jail, and requests that the arrangement may be sanctioned.

2. I herewith enclose Mr. Sullivan's letter, and recommend that the arrangement may be confirmed, subject to the proviso made in the case of Mr. McCarthy, viz., that a general supervision should be exercised by the Magistrate himself.

Judicial Department, 23th February 1866, No. 306.

From the Acting Magistrate of Kurnool, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Kurnool, 9th May 1866, No. 82.

The services of my Assistant, Mr. McCarthy, being urgently required in the District, I have the honor to inform you that I have this day directed him to make over charge of the Jail to the Junior Assistant, Mr. Turner, and I trust that you will recommend this arrangement for the confirmation of Government.

2. Mr. McCarthy is employed in inspecting and reporting on the Subsidiary Jails of the District, which involves his absence from Head Quarters, and as the matter is one which does not admit of delay, I hope that the Government will hold me excused for having anticipated their sanction to the arrangement.

No. 158. ORDER THEREON, 17th May 1866, No. 748.

The arrangement reported in the foregoing letter is confirmed, on the understanding that the Acting Magistrate is to exercise a general supervision over the Jail. As Mr. Turner has very recently been appointed to the public service, Mr. Sullivan should visit the Jail as frequently as his other duties will permit.
